2. Explanation content:

Pursuant to Official Letter No. 1696/SGDHCM-GS dated October 9, 2026, from the Ho Chi Minh City Stock Exchange regarding the disclosure of information concerning the KOS stock price hitting the floor limit for five consecutive trading sessions from October 5, 2026, to October 9, 2026:

Kosy Joint Stock Company (the Company) hereby provides an explanation regarding the KOS stock price hitting the floor limit for five consecutive sessions.

- Regarding market factors: The Company assesses that the stock market has recently continued its downward momentum, exerting psychological selling pressure on investors. Securities firms have reduced margin lending allocations for the Company's stock and simultaneously executed forced liquidations; this intensified market selling pressure, causing the share price to fall continuously and creating liquidity strain.

- Regarding business operations: Currently, the Company's core business activities—including investment, real estate and renewable energy project development, and project operations—are proceeding normally according to plan. There have been no unusual internal developments affecting the share price.

- Commitment to transparency: Kosy Joint Stock Company is committed to strictly fulfilling its information disclosure obligations in accordance with securities laws and Stock Exchange regulations, thereby ensuring openness and transparency for investors.

KOSY Joint Stock Company respectfully submits this report and explanation to the relevant authorities.
